STEP 4: Read and Initial Student Residency - Policy #426

Initial in the box

A student who is a resident of the Bristol School District #1 has the right to a tuition free education, provided the student has not previously been expelled from Bristol School District #1 or another school. Whenever a question arises concerning residency, an investigation shall take place by the District Administrator or designated person to determine resident status. It shall be the responsibility of the parent or legal guardian to demonstrate proper documentation to verify residency within the boundaries of Bristol School District #1. The parent or legal guardian shall provide documentation consistent with the "Affidavit of Residency" associated with this policy.

A student attending Bristol School District #1 under the provisions of Open Enrollment, including via Tuition Waiver, is exempt from the residency requirement. All other non-resident students may attend Bristol School District #1 on a tuition basis with the approval of the Board. A written contract will be developed in such instances and the parent or legal guardian shall be charged tuition as determined by the State of Wisconsin annually. Such non-resident tuition shall be paid in advance of the time of registration. A quarterly payment schedule may be arranged.
