

What does PBIS look like at
Bristol School?

- PBIS is known as the “Renegade Way” at Bristol School
- School wide behavioral expectations are posted throughout the building; including appropriate ways to be respectful, responsible, and safe.
- Expectations for all settings are taught explicitly at the beginning of the year and reviewed throughout the year.
- Students will take part in monthly celebrations within their grade level. During this celebration, the monthly character traits will be discussed

What is the Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) System?

PBIS is a set of strategies and systems that enables our school to: 1. Create a culture of positive behaviors 2. Reduce behavior disruptions 3. Create appropriate environments to educate all students 4. Maximize PBIS approach fosters successful social behavior and encourages staff, students, families, and community members to work together to create a culture with consistent expectations.

Connections between School and Home

1. Remember five positives to one corrective
2. Set the stage for success, reward the effort
3. Give clear, specific directions
4. Stay calm, use a calm voice — Nagging gets you nowhere
5. Set reasonable limits — Avoid using “always” or “never”
6. Be consistent! – “Yes means yes and no means no”
7. Set the example — Actions speak louder than words
8. Proactively anticipate situations
9. Have patience —A little goes a long way
10. Have fun and enjoy the ride

It is important that you know what is expected of your child while they are at school. Scan this code for a list of expectations for the common areas at Bristol!

If you have any questions, please refer to the “Renegade Way” section on the school website. It can be located under the school tab and it is about 1/2 way down the list of options.
